You will now be shown a check code which is case sensitive.

Pass this check code onto whoever needs to view your driving licence. You will also need to provide them with the last 8 characters of your driving licence number.

The check code is valid for 21 days and can only be used once.

You can also download a summary of your driving licence by selecting 'View, print or save your licence information'.

For further information, please visit www.gov.uk/dvla/nomorecounterpart

Since 8 June 2015 the counterpart to the photocard driving licence is not valid and is no longer issued by DVLA.
